Singing Pilgrims Celebrate Succot Harvest Festival

Several hundred pilgrims streamed up to Mt. Zion yesterday to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles and of the autumn harvest by singing and dancing in the large sukkah near King David Tomb.

The flow is expected to increase today with visitors paying one of the three annual pilgrimages to the capital to be as near as possible to the site of the Temple.

The pilgrims will be met at Mount Hariz, in Kiryat Moshe, at the railway station and at Mt. Zion itself. A service of prayer for world peace will begin at 1 p.m. in the sukkah.

The President attended services yesterday at Yehoshua Synagogue where Chief Rabbi Haim Ha-Levi presided. Mr. Ben-Zvi later presided at a service at the sukkah which was attended by more than 200 guests in a sukkah which stands on a veranda at Beit Mahanaim.

The President held a call on the Chief Rabbi whose visitors included Mr. Moshe Shapira, the Minister for Religious Affairs, and Mr. Yehoshua Shapira, the Minister for Religious Affairs, and Mr. Yehoshua Shapira, the Minister for Religious Affairs.

The Chief Rabbi and the Minister for Religious Affairs will receive pilgrims in their sukkah during the week.

In Tel Aviv, the streets were crowded with holiday strollers enjoying the sunny weather. In the afternoon, a large crowd gathered at the sukkah in the center of the city to be seen in many gardens and on private balconies. On open spaces throughout the town, people gathered together to hold their own small sukkahs.

Haifa celebrated the first day of the holiday very quietly, in preparation for the storm of festivities that is to be let loose in the town from today.

Many of the pilgrims who were seen in the sukkah were seen in the sukkah.

The youth annual conference of the Israel Exploration Society will be held in the city during the week.

The Prime Minister will bring greetings from the Government while Professor B. Shapira will speak on behalf of the Hebrew University. The conference will be held in the city during the week.

The first participants in the conference are to arrive in the city during the week.

More than 400 persons have been booked for the conference.

3 Border Policemen Sentenced for Murder

HAIFA, Tuesday. — The District Court here yesterday sentenced three members of the Border Police to life imprisonment for the murder of two Arabs a year ago. The trial was held in Haifa.

The three are Sergeant Eliaz Kadar, 34, Sergeant Eliaz Kadar, 34, and Sergeant Eliaz Kadar, 34.

According to the prosecution, the three men were on patrol duty along the Jordan frontier in the Little Triangle on September 2, 1953, when they encountered and shot down two Arabs near Khalil's kibbutz.

The three accused admitted the facts but pleaded not guilty to murder, claiming that the circumstances in which they encountered the two men were such that they were within their rights in shooting them.

The court was composed of Judges E. Kadar, E. Kadar, and E. Kadar.

Mr. Y. Hoffer-Yishai defended the three men, claiming that they were within their rights in shooting them.

The court sentenced the three men to life imprisonment.

Grapefruit Comes To Haifa Port

HAIFA, Tuesday. — Some 18,000 cases of grapefruit, the season's first crop, arrived in Haifa Port before the festival, and another 15,000 cases are expected to arrive tomorrow and Thursday.

The 30,000 cases are to be exported to Britain on Friday in the 14th Hader. The citrus season opens with the export of about 200,000 cases a month, while the ground-water export season which is to assume very large proportions, is also getting underway.

It was learned that nearly 70,000 kilograms of ground-water are to be picked, most of them for export. Their season abroad appears to be assured, as the quality is of the highest and the price is high.
